EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

The VA AWWA Distribution Systems Committee proudly announces the 31st Annual Water Distribution Seminar and Utility Rodeo to be held April 27th – 29th in Fredericksburg, Virginia. This traditional “hands-on” seminar is designed to provide distribution system personnel with practical information on relevant subjects. The ever popular Utility Rodeo provides various utility-related competitive events in which participants compete against fellow utility personnel in a demonstration of skills, speed and safety.

To ensure your exhibits receive the greatest exposure, we offer incentives to attendees to visit each of the exhibits. Approximately 180 members from cities and towns throughout Virginia visit each year. This seminar attracts the level of supervisors that are the most familiar with your products and have authority to purchase them, making this likely the most cost-effective promotional opportunity for your company!

EXHIBIT SPACE

We are pleased to offer 33 booths for this year’s seminar. The exhibit tabletops measure 6’ long by 2’½’ deep or 10’ long by 2½’ deep with 120V electrical service. The Committee has extension cords and outlet strips available.

PRICING STRUCTURE

A fee of $350 (6’ tables) or $700.00 (10’ tables) will be charged for each exhibit space. This cost includes a registration for one person which includes: t-shirt, training sessions, networking breaks, lunch, cocktail hour (four complimentary drink tickets), banquet dinner, Utility Rodeo, and Bar-B-Q cookout.

Additional exhibitor registrations are $100.00 per person and includes items listed above. Enclosed is a floor plan for your review, please contact Ronnie Baker as soon as possible for your preferred booth site. Limited vendor spaces are available at the Rodeo site. Vendors will be responsible for their setup needs at the Rodeo site.

In order to make our banquet more exciting, we will be raffling prizes to our attendees. If you would like to provide a small prize, please contact Ronnie Baker. Any prize must not exceed $25.00 in value, and your company will be recognized along with the donation.
